In this course you will:

- Learn to assess adults' and children's brain organization profiles (and your own)
- Understand the effects each profile has on learning style
- Relate the organization profiles to specific challenges in reading, writing, hearing, vision, motivation and social skills
- Give new meaning to "right brained" and "left brained" -- and other misapplied labels
- Understand aspects of handwriting and whole body movement in relation to brain organization
- Experience how Brain Gym balancing helps overcome the challenges of any learning profile

Kathy Brown, M.Ed., licensed Brain Gym® consultant and instructor, has 23 years experience as a classroom educator (K-6). Now she offers Brain Gym services in schools, teaches Brain Gym courses and workshops, and works with private clients of all ages.

Kathy says, "I've never seen anything like Brain Gym for uncovering hidden potential and bringing out the best in every learner. It makes learning more fun, and makes teaching easier--and it's simple to do. What could be better?"
